

SOUTHERN GAELS NEWSLETTER

22 APR, 2024

UNDER 12 HURLING

Southern Gaels made the long trip to Delvin from Athlone last Friday for the third round of League games. Seventeen hurlers travelled and played a great game against a strong Delvin side. It was a thoroughly enjoyable game with both sides showing great skills. Thanks to all the mentors and parents who travelled.

UNDER 8S AND 10S HURLING GO GAMES

Both squads had an early start last Saturday for the Blitzes in Castletown Geoghegan starting at 10.00. Southern Gaels had over twenty players involved and everyone enjoyed their games. Crookedwood were also present and there was a high standard of skill in all the games. Thanks to all the coaches and parents who travelled.

FIXTURES

Monday 22nd U16's are away to Fr. Dalton's in league division 2 at 6:45

Monday 22nd U16 camogie are away to Clonkill in league division 2 at 6:30

Wednesday 24th Under 12 Camogie League
Southern Gaels v Crookedwood Athlone 6.30

Wednesday 24th Under 14 League St Oliver
Plunkett's v Southern Gaels Robinstown at 6.45

Friday 26th Under 18 League Cullion/Delvin v
Southern Gaels Cullion at 6.45

Saturday 27th Under 8s and 10s Camogie Blitz in
Drumraney at 10.00

Saturday 27th Under 14 League Southern Gaels v
St Brigid's Athlone 6.30

Sunday 28th Junior Camogie League Southern
Gaels v St Oliver Plunkett's Athlone TBD

Sunday 28th Adult League Division 2 Southern
Gaels v Brownstown, Athlone 3.00

HEALTHY CLUBS COFFEE MORNING

The next get together for retired hurlers and camogie players takes place on Tuesday 30th April in Costa Coffee on the Ballymahon Road at 11.00. All interested in matters relating to the small ball game are welcome and bring a friend.